SAVE THE DATE!

Spotlight on the opportunities and challenges of the healthcare industry, now for the 7th time!

In 2025, one of the most important regional event for medtech researchers, startups, QA (Quality Assurance) & RA (Regulatory Affairs) professionals, manufactures and investors and will take place in a new two-day format. The event is unmissable due to its highly professional content on all segments of the medical device industry and the unique international business networking opportunities.

Technological innovations, regulatory trends, development resources, regulatory expectations, and best manufacturing practices will continue to be in focus – all in one place at the MedTech Summit Budapest Conference!

The event supports business development opportunities with targeted B2B meetings, as this event has become one of the most important meeting points for healthcare industry participants. The record-breaking number of participants each year attests that this event is not to be missed. Leaders from healthcare, medical technology, pharmaceutical, and cosmetic companies, as well as ministries, authorities, research institutions, universities, test labs, consultants, and notified bodies, will all be present from all around the world.

Professional Conference

Number one information source of the professionals and manufacturers working in the healthcare and medical technology industries about domestic and international innovations, regulatory environments, development resources, and current regulatory procedures.

International Focus

The conference is increasingly recognized on an international level, attracting a growing number of foreign speakers and participants each year. The diverse perspectives brought by the international attendees enrich the discussions, fostering a global exchange of knowledge and innovation in the healthcare and medical technology sectors.

Representatives of the largest MedTech Companies and Organizations

The largest medtech companies will also be represented. Their presence underscores the significance of the event and provides attendees with the opportunity to engage with industry leaders and explore cutting-edge technologies.

Application

With the help of the application, the attendees can maximize their networking experience – allowing them to instantly connect with desired individuals and keeping them updated every important aspect of the conference.

Gala Dinner Reception

To conclude the first day, we are hosting an informal gala dinner for our visitors, speakers, and partners, making initiate conversations and build connections even easier.
